Donald Sensabaugh -> All Participants: In regards to the NCSAs, I forgot to mention that we also just launched this handy webpage: <https://fdlp.gov/about-the-fdlp/national-collection-service-areas>

Donald Sensabaugh -> All Participants: Entries can also be submitted to kseifert@gpo.gov and will be considered eligible

Donald Sensabaugh -> All Participants: To clarify, that is for the Conference Bingo in case you do not have a twitter

Helen Keremedjiev -> All Participants: In order to hear the presentation, you will need to connect your audio by either dialing in on the phone or by connecting through your computer speakers. To connect, click "Audio" at the top and then "Audio conference." The pop-up box will give you the two options to connect. Follow the instructions in the box.

Charlie (she-her) Amiot -> All Participants: Anybody else have Webex acting like they can activate a microphone? That's new to me.

Donald Sensabaugh -> All Participants: Could you clarify your question Charlie?

Charlie (she-her) Amiot -> All Participants: It shows on the line w/my name a microphone at the right-hand side.

Charlie (she-her) Amiot -> All Participants: And I've never had that before.

Helen Keremedjiev -> All Participants: If have any questions, please add them to the chat and send them either to "All Participants" or to "All Panelists."

Helen Keremedjiev -> All Participants: If have questions during a live demo (when the presenter starts sharing their screen), mouse over the blue bar at the top. "Chat" is one of the options. Click "Chat" to activate it.

Charlie (she-her) Amiot -> All Participants: It also prompted me to test my microphone before joining, which was new.

Helen Keremedjiev -> All Participants: It's a default audio-testing workflow in WebEx for all folks

Charlie (she-her) Amiot -> All Participants: This is the first time it did that to me all conference. It doesn't look like I can unmute myself, so I guess no issue.

Helen Keremedjiev -> All Participants: In order to hear the presentation, you will need to connect your audio by either dialing in on the phone or by connecting through your computer speakers. To connect, click "Audio" at the top and then "Audio conference." The pop-up box will give you the two options to connect. Follow the instructions in the box.

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: I only see that when I'm a presenter. Never for FDLP/GPO webinars/meetings

Donald Sensabaugh -> All Participants: Interesting, may have been a glitch. Glad to hear there has otherwise been no issue though.

Tracey Boswell -> All Participants: Are these all digital?

Helen Keremedjiev -> All Participants: We are using a different version of WebEx, in which attendees are muted during the session. Presenters can unmute.

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: Any plans to add historic decennial census publications?

Holly Chambers -> All Participants: I know it has been reported elsewhere but could someone remind me when the Serial Set digitization will be completed?

Elizabeth Williams -> All Participants: What are you adding re: courts? Full case documents?

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: searchable pdf? or not?

Holly Chambers -> All Participants: +1 Jenny

Charlie (she-her) Amiot -> All Participants: Someone is unmuted who should not be.

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: are pdf files able to be read by screenreaders?

Helen Keremedjiev -> All Participants: If have any questions, please add them to the chat and send them either to "All Participants" or to "All Panelists." If have questions during a live demo (when the presenter starts sharing their screen), mouse over the blue bar at the top. "Chat" is one of the options. Click "Chat" to activate it.

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: When doing live demos - could presenters enlarge their cursors in future sessions? Thanks (it's not about captioning)

Trina Magi -> All Participants: What's the best way to know the dates of coverage of the various collections in govinfo? Thanks.

Charlie (she-her) Amiot -> All Participants: Did the dinos travel in herds? Or FLOCKS?!

Donald Sensabaugh -> All Participants: Excellent question

Charlie (she-her) Amiot -> All Participants: I bet there's a govdoc on it.

Tracey Boswell -> All Participants: Thanks for going back to my question.

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: PLEASE consider adding historic decennial publications.

Carolyn Ottoson -> All Participants: +1 Jenny

Elizabeth Williams -> All Participants: yes, thank you.

Sarah Dobransky -> All Participants: +1 Jenny Some are available on the census website, but not all and I worry they'll be gone one day :(

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: @Sarah and when Census redesigned site a few years ago, all links broke. I also asked they get into CGP with PURL

Helen Keremedjiev -> All Participants: Don't forget the Conference Bingo <https://www.fdlp.gov/file-repository-item/fall-conference-bingo-card-2022> with activities like completing the depository highlights field in the FDL Directory. Check out this video on how to update the field: <https://vimeo.com/723334959>

Sarah Dobransky -> All Participants: It's be great if they gave the content to GPO (along with the stat abstract) for safekeeping.

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: Court opinions - will there be related docs? like if works it's way to Supreme Court?

Mary Russell -> All Participants: How can the PURL for a specific govinfo document be found?

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: Mary - usually you get PURL in CGP or in GPO catalog records

Charlie (she-her) Amiot -> All Participants: Is there a mailing list we can get on that lets us know when coverage is extended for materials?

Charlie (she-her) Amiot -> All Participants: @Jenny, very doubtful, because PACER.

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: That will help with CFR!!

Beth Downing -> All Participants: Is there a separate collection for the State of the Union addresses? The titles of these are so different that searching by title is almost impossible.

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: For us old folks - can we search by marc field?

Charlie (she-her) Amiot -> All Participants: @Beth, not a GPO solution, but <https://www.presidency.ucsb.edu/> is excellent.

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: Do PURLs go to GovInfo or agency website?

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: I think it is a CGP question

Mary Russell -> All Participants: If we want to promote a resource within Gov.info I was hoping I could find the PURL to use in my blog posts or other digital newsletter

Mary Russell -> All Participants: Thanks for the info!

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: Mary - my experience has been that GovInfo links don't break often - my only experience was when fdsys went away. We should ask CGP

Jon Quandt -> All Participants: <https://www.govinfo.gov/features/state-of-the-union>

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: Oh - now people will expect something similar for State of the State.

Jon Quandt -> All Participants: For searching by PURL number, you can do a search like mods:purlNumber:gpo129429

Jon Quandt -> All Participants:

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: Thanks.

Andrea Stelljes -> All Participants: Thank you!

Bernadette Johnson -> All Participants: Thank you!

Brian Russell -> All Participants: Thank you

Katherine Montoya -> All Participants: Thank you all.

Thomas Rohrig -> All Participants: Thanks you!

Hugh Truslow -> All Participants: Thank you, Jessica, Amanda, Donald, and Jon -- this has been very helpful

Carolyn Ottoson -> All Participants: Amazing! Thank you!

Roberta Boyd -> All Participants: Thank you!

Sarah Dobransky -> All Participants: Thank you!

Jon Quandt -> All Participants: sorry, bad link:

Wendy Etchison -> All Participants: Thank you!

Jackie McFadden -> All Participants: Thank you!

Jackie McFadden -> All Participants: Thank you!

Beth Downing -> All Participants: The State of the Union addresses are issued as either a Congressional Document or report, I can't remember which, but they are not listed as such. Loosing my microfiche access to these it would be nice to be able to find them, as they are part of the Serial Set, but are not available as such in GovInfo.,

Leslie Cunningham -> All Participants: Thanks!

Charlie (she-her) Amiot -> All Participants: You're on camera in case you don't know!
